Today is National Chewing Gum Day

Humans have used chewing gum for over 5,000 years. They may have chewed it for enjoyment, to stave off hunger, or to freshen their breath much like we do today. The sources used to make gum resulted in minty and sweet chewable globs of wax or sap resin that fulfilled the human urge to gnaw. They were unlikely to produce glossy, pink bubbles worthy of jealous pokes from siblings.

However, waking up with it stuck in your hair was still a possibility.

Bobkitten Expectations at Sports Events:

No swearing out loud or any obscenities

No putting down the teams, coaches, referee's

No littering in the stands or on the sidelines

No throwing in things in the stands or at the field

Don't be so loud it draws attention away from the game

Do cheer on our Bobkitten Teams, they've worked hard! Go Bobkittens!
