

CONTACTS WITH STUDENTS

The schools may communicate information through students regarding schools, school programs and non-school programs offered by nonprofit organizations that in the opinion of the principal or designee have social, recreational or educational value to the students. Students shall be encouraged to participate in the presentation of educational programs to the community. The effect on students of such communication and participation shall be given paramount consideration. The principal shall establish appropriate safeguards to prevent the exploitation of students by individuals or groups.

Any nonprofit group that seeks to distribute information about its program shall submit a description describing the relationship of the proposed activity to the educational program to the superintendent for approval.
